Introduction

Raising child with a healthy nutritional habits is not easy especially with a temptations of junk food, , and since children enjoy games we thought of making a combination of both a games and nutritional information .

Why choosing games ?

- Attractive.
- Fun.
- Good use of free time.
- Introduce real information about nutrition especially due to spread unreliable information on social media.

Methodology

1-Determine the type of games:

- Nutrition cubes games
- Puzzle
- Nutromino ( Nutrition domino )

2-Determine content for each game.

3-Experimental work

Seeing the reactions of children while playing the games , and getting feed back from them in order to improve the game , we visited “ Sara Taher Hannon “ sixth grade.

Nutromino (nutrition domino)

Goal: introduce the sources of vitamins and minerals Dominoes to children in a fun, active and easy way. is a family game that is played with rectangular "domino" tiles.

Each domino is a rectangular tile with a line dividing its face into two square ends. Each end is marked with a type of food, vitamin or mineral. the Domino tiles are ordered side by side where each type of food matches the vitamin or mineral that contains until all the tiles finished and the game ends.

Modifications

First I asked my Family members to play the game and I noticed That they had some difficult matching the domino tiles, Because they didn't have enough nutritional information so I attached a handle book that has the nutritional information about the food sources included in the game

Modifications

When I asked a few children to play the game they had difficulty in English symbols and abbreviation of minerals and vitamins , so I added an Arabic version of the game and on the back of tiles
